

REPORT ON ORIENTATION VISIT

On 07-05-2015, the faculty member along with the students of ASSAM DOWN TOWN UNIVERSITY had come for orientation visit at Aashaa Bora foundation, a renowned NGO mainly working in the areas of skill development, livelihood generation, health care, children's rights and women's empowerment. There were total 12 students of Bachelor of social Works (BSW) along with one faculty member (MRS. PRIYANKA BARMAN), field co-ordinator of this university.

(INTERACTING SESSION WITH THE STUDENTS)

“DR.ASHA BORA”, The President of Aashaa Bora Foundation, had delivered a lecture about the organisation and their upcoming projects and also told about Hospitality Management training, which was provided to the underprivileged section of North Eastern State and these students were placed in various Hotels of Guwahati as well as outside the North Eastern Region. The president highlightens vision of the project. The faculty as well as the students is very much interested and inspired from the valuable speech delivered by the President. They had a good interaction with the president along with the staff of the organisation.

