INTRODUCTION:

Aashaa Bora Foundation being a Non-Profitable Organisation has been doing various activities beneficial to the underprivileged section of the society since its inception in 1991-1992. As one of its objectives to render to the rural people who are victims of natural calamities such as flood, drought, fire, cyclone, earthquake, disaster & epidemic Aashaa Bora Foundation recently organised a Flood relief and free Medical camp at Gerimari, Mangaldoi under Darrang District of Assam in collaboration with Jeevan Jyoti Nyas (Sadou Asam Sarkari Gari Chalak Aru Sahaik Sanstha), and Darrang District Working Journalist Union.

FLOOD RELIEF CAMP

Every year during monsoon Assam is inundated with flood. As a result lakhs of people are affected by it. In order to lend some help to these affected people Aashaa Bora Foundation organised a Flood Relief Camp at Gerimari, Prafulla Nagar under Mangaldoi District on 27th August 2016. Local M.L.A Mr. Gurujyoti Das inaugurated the Relief Camp Programme by cutting the ribbon and delivering a brief speech. Under this camp 37 cartons of clothes were distributed among the flood affected people. Three and half quintal rice, 2 quintal Sira (rice flakes), one quintal gur (jaggery) were provided to them.

FREE MEDICAL CAMP

Along with the distribution of flood relief materials Aashaa Bora Foundation conducted a free medical camp in collaboration with G.N.R.C for the people of the areas. Two Hundred and Seventy people were given free health check up by a team of Four Doctors. Sixteen ultrasounds , twenty seven ECGs were done and thirty three persons were referred for better treatment. Free medicines were distributed among the people by Aashaa Bora and Volunteers of Aashaa Bora Foundation.

CONCLUSION

The main objective of this programme was to provide some amount of relief to those who were victims of the flood and were in dire need of the basic necessities of life. The people who came to take the relief materials were very much satisfied to get the clothes which were very much in wearable condition. Furthermore free medicines and food items distributed among them were of much use for the people after being hit by the flood. Such initiatives by Aashaa Bora Foundation will continue in future as well.
