INTRODUCTION

Aashaa Bora Foundation was started by women entrepreneur Aashaa Bora. She was involved in a number of social activities and primarily encouraging the entrepreneurship skill of woman. The objective of Aashaa Bora Foundation is to endeavour for moral, educational, social, intellectual, physical, materials and cultural improvement of rural areas in Assam.

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Time and again Aashaa Bora Foundation has been conducting Free Medical Health Camps in rural areas. Such a Free Health Check up camp was organised in Batakuchi (Sonapur), on 1st November, 2015 in association with GNRC. In this programme health check-up was provided to the village people without taking any fees from them. Total five doctors from GNRC, Guwahati came to the programme. More than eighty five people gathered for health check-up. Besides giving the free health check-up, free medicines were also distributed to the village people. Ultrasound and ECG were also done without any charge.

The entire programme on Free Health Check up ended successfully. Aashaa Bora Foundation had tried to take an initiative to bring health care to the people who are either from a backward area or are poor enough to seek medical attention by paying money.
