INTRODUCTION

Aashaa Bora Foundation is a non-profitable, non-governmental, and non-political entity based in Guwahati, Assam. The main purpose of the foundation is to create equality in the society by empowering the poor, vulnerable and disadvantageous groups: bringing peace and prosperity in the region through livelihood generations

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

On 28th June, 2105 a programme was organised by Tai Ahom Yuba Parishad in association with Aashaa Bora Foundation to felicitate the high school and higher secondary passed out candidates in Dispur Press Club, Guwahati. More than hundred people were present during the programme.

In the programme Dr Aashaa Bora, president of Aashaa Bora foundation was invited as a chief guest and other dignitaries were Dr Sangeeta Gogoi, Ananda Buragohain, Dilip Gogoi, Hemanta Changmai and Pranjit Konwar. Besides felicitating the students, this programme was also organized to motivate the economically backward students specially the physically handicapped students. The guest invited for this programme delivered some speech to the students by encouraging them never to lose hope in life. The students were felicitated with a prestigious Assamese ‘Gamosa’, a certificate and one Assamese dictionary named ‘Hemkosh’ along with a cheque of Rupees 3000.

Among the students, three of them were physically handicapped. One of these three students, a girl named Princy Gogoi who does not have arms from her birth had secured second division by writing with her foot in the exam. So, Dr Aashaa Bora, President of Aashaa Bora Foundation had given some financial help to her.

CONCLUSION

From Aashaa Bora Foundation a special lunch was provided for the students and other participants of the programme. The entire programme on Felicitation for High School and Higher Secondary passed out candidates organised by Tai Ahom Yuba Parishad in association with Aashaa Bora Foundation was ended successfully. From this programme the students were very much encouraged by giving them certificates, books and some amount of money for success in their life.
