A Short case study

Better hope of Inamul to achieve higher education.

Inamul Hoque is 12 years old boy was born in a poor family, his father is a driver and mother was a house wife, when Innamul was 6 years old during that period he lives with his family in poverty. Inamul's Father has been suffering from illness which prevent him from working, as a result there economic status become low more than earlier. At that time innocent Inamul Started to dream to go for good school but because of poor economic condition parent could not provide education, proper nutrition and clothing.

When Aashaa Bora Foundation got information about the crises of Inamul and his family, a team of Aashaa Bora foundation visited to Inamul's house and interacted with all the member of the family and from that day Aashaa Bora Foundation had decided TO STEP up with Inamul's through Dream providing financial assistance for Inamul, and Aashaa Bora Foundation Foundation provided vocational training to Inamul's mother and she has complete his training and got placement ,so Aashaa Bora foundation is grateful and success for that now Inamul is lives in his family with smile and happiness.
