A Short case study

Better hope of Inamul to achieve higher education.

Dhiraj Das is a 12 years boy from Kamrup district Assam, he lives in a small family with his parents including younger sister. Dhiraj was born in a deprived family, When Dhiraj was 4 years old during that time his parents was a desire to send Dhiraj for better education but because of financial hindrance parent were not prepared to admit Dhiraj in school. The father of Dhiraj was a street vendor and his mother works at weaving centre of Aashaa Bora Foundation. Team of social worker of Aashaa bora foundation came to know about the fact of the family and on the basis of assessment report of social worker Aashaa Bora Foundation had decided to sponsor this child for his education .According to our last follow up report Dhiraj is now in class vi and his parents also happy about their son. Aashaa Bora Foundation wishes better success of Dhiraj Das.
